Offtake agreement signed

Fox Marble, the AIM listed company focused on marble quarrying in Kosovo, is pleased to announce that the Company has signed an offtake agreement to supply cut and polished marble to Pisani Plc ("Pisani"), one of the leading wholesale suppliers of marble in the UK.

Under the agreement, Pisani has agreed to purchase a minimum of €588,000 (approximately £500,000) of high quality, premium marble from Fox Marble's quarries in Kosovo. The contract is for the longer of either one year or until a minimum of 945 metric tonnes of marble has been supplied to Pisani.

The marble to be supplied to Pisani will be cut and polished under toll arrangements at a third party facility in Italy, which is currently producing sample slabs and tiles for Fox Marble, until such time as Fox Marble's own facility is operational.

Pisani currently sells cut and polished slabs of the highest quality marble sourced from 40 countries around the world. Its flagship showroom and warehouse is in Feltham, Middlesex, and it has a second showroom in Matlock, Derbyshire.

Pisani intends to host a launch party in the Autumn to exhibit Fox Marble's products to its key customers in the construction and architecture industries.

Chris Gilbert, Chief Executive of Fox Marble, said: "We are delighted with this agreement with Pisani, which is undoubtedly one of the best and most successful wholesalers of premium quality marble in the UK. We look forward to a long and successful relationship with Pisani, a company with a clear understanding of the quality and desirability of our marble from Kosovo."

Costas Sakellarios, Managing Director of Pisani, said: "We look forward to selling the marble that Fox Marble can supply to us and our wide range of customers who rely on Pisani to provide top quality marble."
